Dear Sir Poonegar,

As already informed the Vice-Presidentship of the C & M Station Municipal Commission is one of annual election and in today's Municipal Commission Meeting Mr Abdul Lathif has been elected Vice-President The usual proceedure is for the ~~collector~~ to sanction the election As such I do not think I can attend the Meeting of the Committee for the Prohibition of Beggary next week

In his letter No L 3291-95 dated the 30th October 1941 the Secretary to Government, Law Department had written to me asking me in my personal capacity, as I was not yet the Vice-President of the C & M Station Municipal Commission, whether I would serve on the Committee which I answered in the affirmitive on 31/10/41 Unless I hear from you that I might attend in my personal capacity it will not look nice if I attend the Meetings

Yours sincerely,

A Thangavelu Mudaliar

Municipality as one of the members of elected each year may continue as member Captain Rao Saheb Thakarela Purushotham became the Vice President in Nov last year, and ceases to be a such now but when he was appointed before the formation of the Committee enquiring whether he would serve, he was not the V-P. but was addressed in his personal capacity Such a course was taken presumably on the ground that the Purushotham was taking keen interest in the problem, he is even now found very serviceable, and as such it is desirable to retain him in the committee especially as he has attended three meetings and would be of help in arriving at conclusions of the several discussions as Vice President, [illegible] I do in the 90 the name of only the Vice President of the Municipality is entered & not the name of Ras Sebel Mr Jayavelou Mudaliar

The Chairman in his note desires that Ras Sebel Mr Jayavelou Mudaliar may continue to remain a member of the Committee in his personal capacity, in addition to the Vice President of the Municipality as Ras Sebel Mr Jayavelou has attended the meetings of the Committee & has of considerable use to the Committee Further, the Vice President is also wanted, for, on many occasions the Collector of the District has to be absent on account of his multifarious duties, & as the Vice-President represents the Bangalore City Municipality in the deliberations of the Committee

It is therefore requested that the personnel of the Committee may please be increased by one member, in order to, permit Ras Sebel Mr Jayavelou Mudaliar to in his personal capacity attend the meetings, & [illegible] [illegible] to give his valuable suggestions to the Committee By doing so, the original intention of the Govt will be carried out
